

Permit No. 2.

October 9, 1914.

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHING OPERATIONS WITHIN THE ALEUTIAN ISLANDS RESERVATION, ALASKA.

Under the provisions of Executive Order of March 3, 1913, establishing the Aleutian Islands Reservation, and in accordance with Section 6 of the Regulations for the Aleutian Islands Reservation, Alaska, effective March 15, 1914, William Gardner, a resident of Unalakleet Island, whose postoffice address is Unga, Alaska, is hereby authorized to engage in the taking of salmon within the waters of the Aleutian Islands Reservation and to sell the same either fresh or salted: Provided, That all fishing and salting operations shall be confined to those had under the personal supervision of the permittee and by means of his own apparatus and equipment, and that no other person or corporation shall have an interest therein: And provided further, That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and the existing regulations for the administration of the Aleutian Islands Reservation (copies of which are hereto attached), as well as those that may be hereafter enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

This permit is not transferable and is revocable at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.
